This article offers a detailed overview of nikah nama in English, including its definition, purpose, legal significance, components, and the process of registration. Whether you are a Muslim seeking to formalize your marriage or a legal professional working with Islamic marriage documentation, this guide aims to provide clarity on this vital document.

What is a Nikah Nama?

Definition of Nikah Nama in English A nikah nama is a formal marriage certificate issued after the completion of an Islamic marriage contract, or nikah. In English, it is often referred to as a "marriage certificate," "marriage deed," or "marriage registration document." It serves as an official record that confirms two individuals have entered into a valid Islamic marriage according to religious principles and, in many cases, legal requirements.

Historical and Cultural Context

Traditionally, the nikah nama is a handwritten or printed document signed by the bride, groom, witnesses, and the officiating imam or marriage registrar. In contemporary practice, especially in countries with formal legal systems, the nikah nama is issued by government or religious authorities and may be registered with state agencies.
